On a hot day Abe Lincoln was walking down a road, carrying his coat. A stranger came along in a buggy and was asked "Sir will you be so kind As to take my overcoat to town for me?" The man agreed to it asking "But How will you get it back again?" "That's easy" said Lincoln, putting on his coat, "I'll stay inside it."

Production and postal costs are a constant factor in mailing out these catalogs. We are pleased to send catalogs to active customers free of charge.
